Submit an R&D claim notification

This is the information HMRC requires to pre-notify them of the client's intention to subsequently submit a full claim for R&D tax relief in this financial year

HMRC requires the first R&D eligible accounting period for Corporation Tax relevant to this financial year to be specified in the claim notification submission. Please confirm the correct accounting period and edit accounting periods if the required accounting period is not available below

Accounting period ending: 31 Mar 2025

Please complete all the necessary information HMRC needs for a successful R&D claim notification. Where possible, information has been pre-populated from existing sources.
